

Holden Greenberg
greenbergh@carleton.edu
914-844-5921

300 North College Street
Northfield, MN 55057

19 West Drive
Larchmont, NY 10538

Education

Carleton College, Northfield, MN

Candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, June 2018

- Pursuing double major in Computer Science and Economics
- Additional coursework in Chinese language

Work Experience

Intern, The Richmond Company, Wilmington, MA, Summer 2015 (upcoming)

- Will be supporting research and operations activity for commercial real estate development firm

Counselor, Northstar Camp, Hayward, WI, Summers 2012-14

- Organized and led educational activities such as canoeing, camping and field sports for 30 campers

Leadership Experience and Honors

Participant, Twin Cities Business Scholars Program, Northfield, MN, Spring 2014

- Selected to join program which included company tours and skill development workshops
- Member of Carleton student delegation at the 2015 Berkshire Hathaway shareholders meeting in Omaha, NE

Class President, Mamaroneck High School, Mamaroneck, NY, 2010-14

- Planned, organized and publicized school-wide events
- Raised approximately $30,000 for student functions
- Led student-faculty forums on a variety of topics including stress reduction

Student Director, Semi-Royal Shakespeare Company, Mamaroneck, NY, 2013-14

- Led rehearsals for production of Hamlet; cast member 2010-13

Seed Foundation Grantee, DoSomething.com, New York, NY, 2014

- Awarded grant from national organization based on original research project:
Effects of a School-Based Asthma Education Program for Urban Adolescents

Skills Summary

- Strong writing and oral communication skills demonstrated in extracurricular activities and through coursework
- Strong analytical skills developed through mathematics and computer science coursework